

CIH<sup>LMU</sup> Public Health Symposium 2016

Public Health Challenges of Forced Migration

Saturday, 19th March 2016, 9:00-17:00

Auditorium A202, Department of Anatomy, Pettenkoferstrasse 11, LMU Munich

Aim

Europe is currently facing mass migration of displaced population seeking asylum. Germany is a favored destination for asylum seekers. This Symposium will discuss the public health challenges of the influx of forced migrants.

Topics and Speakers

Overview of global migration

(Prof. Bayard Roberts, London School of Hygiene and Tropical Medicine, UK)

Disease patterns among forced migrants

(Dr. Sabine Vygen, Robert Koch Institute, Germany)

Healthcare services for migrants in Europe

(Ms. Marion Chenevas, Doctors of the World, Germany)

Infectious diseases and migration: the case of Tuberculosis

(Dr. Florian Neuhan, University of Heidelberg, Germany)

Healthcare for migrants: The Refudocs Concept

(Dr. Mathias Wendeborn, Refudocs, Germany)

Experiences of Doctors of the World with refugees in transit

(Mr. Hans Stubbe, Doctors of the World, Germany)

Personal experiences of asylum seekers

(Migrant Speaker, Syria)

Myths and facts about forced migrants

(Panel Discussion)

Symposium language: English

Symposium seats are limited, please pre-register with Dr. Chibuike Chigbu on or before 12 March 2016 using the e-mail: symposium.public-health@lrz.uni-muenchen.de.

7 CME Points

Awarded from the Bavarian Medical Association